Numb. 7285.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday March 30. to Tuesday April 2. 1734.

Whitehall, April 2.

THE following Addreſs has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable Sir Robert Walpole, in the Abſence of the Right Honourable Lord Walpole, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Devon, and of the City of Exeter and County of the ſame. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council of the City of Exon.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty upon the Marriage of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Orange with the Princeſs Royal.

A Prince of that Houſe, from whence many and great Bleſſings have been diffuſed through theſe Kingdoms.

A Prince, whoſe Abilities preſage a Greatneſs equal to his glorious Anceſtors; whoſe happy Union with the Royal Princeſs fills us with the greateſt Joy and Satisfaction, and enlargeth our glorious Proſpect of Proteſtant Heirs to the Crown of theſe Realms.

This is an additional Proof of your Majeſty's Care and Concern for the Good and Welfare of your People, and ſufficiently ſhews, that you are not contented with the immediate governing and protecting us in our Rights, Privileges, and Immunities, both Civil and Religious, but carefully providing for the ſame to Poſterity, by increaſing and ſecuring the Succeſſion ſettled in your Majeſty's Proteſtant Royal Family; a Bleſſing which muſt make the Memory of the late King William glorious to this Nation till Time ſhall be no more.

May your Majeſty continue to rule in the Hearts and Love of your People; and may your Reign be long and proſperous; and may there never be wanting one of your Royal Proteſtant Line to fill the Throne of theſe Realms, is the hearty Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and ever faithful Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, has been preſented to his Majeſty. Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of the City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Mayor, Aldermen, and Aſſiſtants of your ancient and loyal City of Rocheſter, in Common Council aſſembled, having a juſt Senſe of the many and great Bleſſings, which by your paternal Care, under the Divine Providence, redound to us and the whole Nation; and more eſpecially of thoſe, which we truſt will enſue from the preſent Alliance of your Royal Family with the illuſtrious Houſe of Naſſau; deſire to approach, in the humbleſt Manner, your Sacred Perſon, to tender our moſt ſincere Congratulations on this happy Occaſion.

The Preſence of a Prince of Orange among us, in whom all the Virtues of his great Predeceſſors are ſo eminently conſpicuous, revives the Memory of thoſe great Obligations we owe to a Branch of that Family, and renews our juſt Eſteem and Veneration for it.

To that Prince, in a good Meaſure, we owe the Felicities of your Majeſty's Reign; we owe the preſent Enjoyment of our civil and religious Rights, the Sanction of our ancient and excellent Conſtitution, the Confirmation of our undoubted Liberties, and that we can now pay to your Majeſty the reaſo-
